Town Adopts Pension Plan

Provisions for a pension plan for Newmarket town employees and hospitalization and medical insurance were introduced by the town council last week.

During most of this year, Councillors R. C. Morrison and Rudy Renzious have been considering different schemes to pension town employees. Ten schemes offered by private insurance companies were considered by Mr. Morrison and Mr. Renzious but only a federal government scheme was acceptable to the Ontario Municipal Board.

The town and the employees will contribute together financially on the pensions scheme. All town employees including the police qualify for the scheme but not hydro workers.

The meeting was devoted to an 18-page pensions by-law which passed second reading. The town employees will be asked if they wish to take part in the plan. Cost to the town if every employee went in with the plan would be an initial $10,000 and $2,000 a year. Following the suggestion of the mayor, council will debenture probably for the $10,000 if every employee goes on the plan.

A resolution also was passed to provide for a medical insurance scheme. The instigation of the insurance plan will depend on whether the employees want it or not.

The pensions were instigated by a police grant from the government, according to Reeve A. D. Evans. The grant amounts to 25 percent of police department costs to the town providing there is a pension plan in effect for the police. The grant is not available without the plan.

"If it hadn't been for this we would not have had the plan," Mr. Evans commented. Mayor Vale did not agree that it was only the grant that brought on the pension plan. "I have been anxious to get this going for some time, myself," he said.

It was pointed out that no employee would be forced to take on the payments toward pensions. The police themselves would not have to take part in the plan. Mr. Evans said that the grant was available as long as "a pensions plan were available to them", quoting from the act.

The sickness insurance would provide for hospital, medical bills and continued payment of wages while an employee is sick.

Junior Farmers Double Header

This year renewed interest was shown in the York County Junior Farmers' home plowing competition with nine new contestants plowing including a new entry in the ladies' class, but it is of interest also that only three boys plowed with Dobbin providing the necessary horse power.

The lands were plowed on the home or neighboring farms and judged by L. H. Winslow, Millbrook. The prizes were announced and presented at the annual banquet held at Agincourt on Friday night last when Stuart Watson, district director of the Ontario Junior Farmers' Association, presided.

Norman Tyndall, Richmond Hill, had the champion land and was presented with the 30-year-old Marion MacGregor Challenge Trophy by Robt. Watson, Woodbridge, who was secretary of the organization when the cup was first donated. The names of previous winners engraved on it look like a list of International winners. The James McLean Memorial Trophy for the best land in boys' and beginners' classes went to 12-year-old Andrew Watson, Woodbridge.

The winners in the various classes were: Class 2, Norman Tyndall; J. Fraser, wrist watch; Elson Miles, Milliken, Eckardt tea service and C. Young Special; Bill Clark, Gormley, R. R. 2, $6; Elmer Harding, Milliken, $4; Class 3, Lloyd Balsdon, Sharon, $25 Lions bus trip; Bob Hamilton, Schomberg, $10 and C. Young Special; Class 4, Carl Timbers, Stouffville, $25 Lions bus trip; John Kennedy, Agincourt, $10 and C. Young Special; John Heacock, Schomberg, $6; Class 5, Andrew Watson, Woodbridge, T. Eaton Co. silver tray; Class 6, Archie Cameron, Woodbridge, F. Perkins' set of wrenches; Howard Doner, Newmarket, $10 and C. Young Special; Lloyd English, Queensville, $6; Nelson Buchanan, Unionville, $4; Class 7, Phyllis Wells, Stouffville, C. Graham cream and sugar set; Ida Bertolin, Ravenshoe, $10.

Instead of having a guest speaker for the banquet five young people competed in the County Junior Farmers' public speaking contest on a variety of subjects with ten minute addresses. Each contestant was then required to give a three-minute impromptu speech on assigned subjects. The winners were Greg McGuire, Schomberg; Lois Graham, Highland Creek; Ruth Watson, Woodbridge.

Judges for the oratorical were Mr. W. Adams of Aurora high school; Mrs. Ken Goodfellow, Nobleton, and Mr. J. C. Lawrence of Agincourt high school. While the speakers were getting their impromptu assignments the Schomberg club entertained with a "mixed" quartette and a solo by Gwyn Marchant.

Penguins are birds, but they never fly.

WM. GEER NEW CHAIRMAN ARENA COMM.

Bill Geer was elected chairman of the Newmarket Memorial Arena Commission at its inaugural meeting held last week. Present were the complete board of Dewey Kuhns, Ray Jelley, Leo Cull, Bill Geer, Bert Morrison, J. B. Walker and Tom Birrell. The board is scheduled to take over management at the arena on the completion of the installation of artificial ice.

Main moves of the committee were the insertion of an ad. in the Era and Express to secure the services of a competent engineer and manager.

At the Monday meeting it was decided a request would be put in the Era and Express asking all would-be users of ice time such as school boards, Pickering College, intermediate, juvenile, midget and bantam hockey teams, as well as surrounding district teams and organizations to make known their requirements. As soon as this information came to hand a proposed schedule could be set up, it was thought.

There was every evidence from the remarks of the committee members that the proposed program would stress ample skating facilities for the pupils of the various schools. Discussion turned to a bang-up opening night program that possibly will bring two outstanding junior A teams.

Gormley Man Hurt When Car Hit Tree

James H. Stewart, 25, of Gormley was rushed to York County hospital, Newmarket, after his car went out of control, skidded and ended up against a tree two miles north of Aurora early last Saturday morning. Stewart suffered a fractured collar bone and ribs.

Stewart was returning from Bradford around 12.30 a.m. when the accident occurred. Wtih him were his wife Verna, 25, Mrs. Marion Heintzman, 26, and Gordon Tryon, 26. All came from Gormley. They suffered minor cuts and bruises. Taken to York County hospital at Newmarket, of the three, Tryon was the only one immediately released following treatment.

According to police, the car apparently went out of control as it came down a grade on Yonge St. Skidding 75 feet, the car struck the ditch and swung around against a tree. Attending the injured at the scene were Dr. Crawford Rose and Dr. J. L. Urquhart of Aurora.

Mayor Vale Urges Support Of Poppy Day

To the editor: Through the medium of your paper, I wish to call attention to the sale of poppies to take place on Saturday, Nov. 5.

I know something of the work of the Poppy Fund of the Canadian Legion and hope that it may be continued in the future. This fund stands ready to aid the veterans in many ways and in some cases is the only emergency help available to him.

If this fund is to carry on for another year, the appeal to be made on Saturday must be answered by all of us. I invite the citizens to join me in support of this worthy work.

Joseph Vale, Mayor.

A familiar figure around Newmarket for many years is W. E. Morton. He is sexton of Trinity United church and is probably best known as the mail man who meets all the trains, taking the mail from the post office to the station.

On Saturday he celebrated his 75th birthday along with a family reunion of 17.

Mr. Morton was born in 1874 on the farm of his father, Ira Morton at Egypt, south-east of Sutton West, and he attended school there. He stopped school at an early age and worked for farmers, on the western harvest excursions and in lumber camps and finally secured a position in the paper mills at Sturgeon Falls.

In 1901 he married Ida Frances Grose, daughter of Henry Grose, Lefroy. In 1903 he was made caretaker of Belleville College while his brother, Rev. R. E. Morton was preparing for the ministry. In 1906 he moved to Keswick where his father and mother lived on a farm. He worked at the Keswick power house and on farms until he purchased a 100-acre farm near Cookstown in 1909.

Mr. Morton purchased the farm on Davis Dr. now owned by Andrew Watson in 1920 and remained there for 15 years. Retiring from farming in 1935, he purchased a store in Sutton, later moved to Uxbridge in 1937 and back to Newmarket, again, purchasing a home at 53 Timothy St.

Five brothers of W. E. Morton are Isaac (deceased), John, Toronto, Ernie, Newmarket, Rev. Richard, Oshawa, and Norman, Thornhill. One sister, Mrs. Angus King (Mary), died. His wife died November 27, 1948. Three sons are George, serving in the Mounted Police at Calder, Sask., Milton, an overseas veteran employed at the Davis Leather Company, Newmarket, and Wallace, an overseas veteran on the office staff of the Rollin Paper Co., Toronto. Three daughters are Mrs. R. N. Smith (Eleanor), Montreal, Mrs. G. S. McRae (Mabel), Waterdown, and Mrs. L. W. Pike (Evelyn), Carlton Place.

Mr. Morton was a share holder for many years in the Newmarket Dairy Company, president of the local branch of the United Farmers of Ontario, on the board of stewards at Trinity United church. All the trees in Lions Club Park were planted by him.

No Accommodation For Pupils--Ridges Moot School Area

A deputation from Oak Ridges school section placed its school problem before Whitchurch council on Saturday. Oak Ridges, Mr. Frank Legge told council, has 275 pupils including 60 children from outside the section, half from Wilcox Lake. A recent addition was overcrowded, and staggered classes are the result with children being able to attend only half a day. Some children up to seven years are still without any accommodation at all. Mr. Legge suggested there was need of a two or three-room school for Wilcox Lake alone.

Clerk Crawford told the meeting a recent survey showed there are ten percent more children attending now and 18 percent more children of pre-school age than formerly.

One spokesman said the debenture debt in the section was as much as the area could stand. Any more tax would lead people to scatter into other sections because of oppressive taxation.

Reeve Logan said council realized the serious problem that had arisen, but could not offer any solution. If the section could arrive at a solution that needed consideration by council he thought it would be a better approach.

It was pointed out by the delegation that the section to the north of Oak Ridges was overcrowded and contemplated expansion. Not long ago questionnaire sent out by council indicated by the answers received that the trustees did not favor an overall school board for the whole township, something which could go a long way to solving a trouble such as has arisen at Oak Ridges and Wilcox Lake.

Despite this over-all picture in Whitchurch, Oak Ridges apparently is for a township school area, as indicated at a meeting of the Oak Ridges Home and School Association held recently. The meeting was addressed by H. A. Halbert. He spoke favorably of school areas and explained how the burden is carried evenly by the whole township and how the schools of Scarboro and district were transformed by school areas. He went as far as to say: "If there had not been school areas, there would not have been any schools." A motion was made and seconded that Oak Ridges Home and School Association ask the township council to consider school area before July 1, 1950.

Insurance Payment

The councillors divided into two camps on payment for car insurance for the two township constables. Last year, as Constable Watt explained, council paid half his car insurance, but when he inserted the item in his expense account last month, council struck it out on the assumption they had not contributed to this item the year before.

When it was shown the item had been honored before Reeve Logan held that since there was no stipulation in the by-law under which constables were engaged to pay their insurance, he would not favor such payment. Councillor Timbers, who was absent when the item was deleted, took the same stand as the reeve.

Councillor Legge maintained that other townships and the county honor this item, and Whitchurch should do likewise. When he voted against it in the first place, it was under wrong impression, he said. Mr. Legge then submitted a resolution to pay both constables half their insurance totalling in all about $30.

Councillor Baycroft said he voted against payment under wrong impression, but would now support the payment. Deputy-Reeve McLaughlin also voted for Mr. Legge's motion.

Constable Watt, before the vote was taken, asked the council what council's position might be if the constables carried no insurance and met with an accident while on duty. "That's an important feature," said Mr. Legge. The motion carried three to two.

Mayor Requests Two Minutes Silence

Mayor Joseph Vale has issued the following statement with respect to the observance of Armistice Day, Nov. 11, in Newmarket: All persons in the town of Newmarket are requested to observe two minutes' silence on the 11th of November commencing at 11 o'clock in the morning in honor of the boys who paid the Supreme Sacrifice in World Wars 1 and 2.

The Mayor and Members of Council will attend at the cenotaph on D'Arcy Street to observe this silence and all citizens of the town wishing to do so are invited to participate in this ceremony.

Immediately prior to 11 o'clock the mayor, on behalf of the town, will lay a wreath at the cenotaph and the veterans' organizations and other organizations and citizens are invited to lay wreaths at the same time.

Wins Potato Contest For Third Time

Seven hundred bushels of potatoes per acre is a lot of spuds to grow any year but in spite of the severe drought one member of the York County 500 Bushel Potato club was only 11 bushels short of that yield.

For the third time in succession Herb Jones, Maple, whose farm is in the Honey Pot district of Vaughan has won the contest, this year with the staggering yield of 689 bushels and the judges say that had the check diggings been taken across the best end only it would have run close to 1,000. It has been suggested this district should be renamed Potato Pot.

Twenty growers competed again this year and second place goes to Douglas Campbell, Mount Albert, with a yield of 549 bushels per acre. Andrew Williams, Shadlow Lake Farm, Stouffville, comes in third with 543 bushels, Norman Payne, Maple, 537 bushels for fourth and Cliff Wallwork, Stouffville, fifth with 516 bushels. The average for the 20 fields was 432 bushels.

The committee will be meeting shortly to arrange for the annual banquet and presentation of prizes. In the meantime it is expected that those growers with the higher yields will enter the championship class for the C.I.L. Special at the Royal Winter Fair.

Legion Hall To Be Dedicated

The new Aurora Canadian Legion hall will be dedicated and officially opened on Sunday, Nov. 13, in connection with the annual civic Remembrance Day service. Col. The Hon. Arthur Welsh, D.S.O., M.C., the provincial secretary, will be the guest speaker and turn the key for the occasion. Rev. R. K. Perdue, the branch padre, now resident in Toronto, will take the service at the cenotaph and officiate at the dedication.

The official municipal service will be held at Aurora United church at 2 p.m. Taking part in the service will be Rev. H. Howey, Rev. K. Whatmough, Rev. A. R. Park, Rev. Dr. Orr Mulligan and other Aurora clergy. It is expected that Rev. Don Ray, Kettleby, former R.C.A.F. navigator, will be the guest speaker. Fall-in is at 1.15 at Aurora town park and all veterans of the district are invited to attend.

Members of the municipal council of Aurora, Whitchurch and King have been invited to attend and along with the next-of-kin of the fallen will have a special part in the program.

The laying of wreaths at the cenotaph will follow the civic service, and following the official opening the public will be privileged to inspect the new hall and be guests of the branch and Ladies' Auxiliary at a tea.

Diabetic Survey Covers Over 800

The diabetic survey in Newmarket has covered over 800 school children and up to today, the coverage has been 99 percent efficient. There were only two refused among those to be tested for diabetes.

If the survey continues to find the co-operation in the rest of the town as it has in the schools and keeps the 99 percent record, the survey will have the most outstanding medical survey data recorded. It is the first diabetes survey to be made in this country, to discover the incidence of diabetes in an average community.

The four schools have been completed today with the St. John's school coverage 100 percent, the Alexander Muir 100 percent coverage and the other two schools 99 percent coverage. There were only two refusals to be tested, those being in the King George and Stuart Scott schools.

N. P. Kelly, in charge of recorded data in the survey, said that Dr. Kenny and his staff have found excellent co-operation from parents and teachers. "Some mothers actually brought in children who have been away ill or convalescing to have them tested," he said.

Dr. A. H. Chute, in charge of the survey, said that the initial progress and co-operation among the citizens of Newmarket has been gratifying. Staff workers say that the co-operation has made their work easier than expected.

Pickering College is expected to be started on the survey today. The students will not be included in the survey for statistical purposes but the school expressed a desire to have the tests carried out there. Following the college, the high school will be covered and those students who live in Newmarket will be included in the statistics.

It is expected that the factories will not be started on the survey until two weeks have gone by. Dr. J. G. Cock, chairman of the citizens' survey committee and committee members are preparing for the survey of the remainder of the town after the factories have been completed.

Two-Thirds Welding Job Completed

The volunteer welding crew is moving along swiftly. Over two-thirds of the job is done. They probably will complete it this week. Mr. J. Hutchison of the Canadian Ice Machinery Co., engineer on the project here, is pleased with the work done to date. Mr. Hutchison is proceeding satisfactorily with the installation of the ice-making equipment. The compressor and condensers were put into position over the weekend. The brine tank will be in place and welded before press time. Following that will be the connecting of the various units.

Last week a mistake was made in the name of the chaps doing the welding job. It should have read Howard Newton. He and Morris Crowder have done the welding together and it's been a very big job. As one chap so aptly put it, fellows like Eddie Gibson, Geo. Stuart, Geo. Watt, Pat McLean, Les Woolven, have been working around the rink so much they should be able to go into rink business. Here's a few more to add to the swelling voluntary work crew, George Hoare, Bill Evans, Bill Morritt, Norm. Tunney, Don Ivany, Deb. Cooper, Myron Spaulding. There are others we've missed but will catch up next week.

Work on front section for dressing rooms, etc., is proceeding according to schedule. The walls are beginning to take shape and by next week the visitors, and there are many, will be able to get an over-all picture of the future home of hockey and skating in Newmarket.

Several organizations aren't forgetting there's money to be raised to complete the job. Newmarket Fire Brigade has pledged 50 percent of the proceeds of their euchre, dance and draw schedule for Nov. 11.

CAMERA CLUB TO MEET

The Newmarket Camera club, recently re-organized, will meet on November 7 at Pickering College at 8 p.m. when there will be the election of officers and a program announced. The club is open to all camera enthusiasts over the age of 16 years. The club has been inactive the last year and a half.

AURORA BOY NOT SERIOUS AFTER RUN OVER

Late Saturday afternoon, eight-year-old Garry Knowles, Aurora, was run over by a south-bound car on Yonge St. as he started home for supper. Although the car wheels passed completely over his stomach, doctors were unable to find any serious injury, according to the last report.

Garry had been playing with some chums on the west side of Yonge St. As he started across the street a car driven by Mrs. Barbara Robinson of Sutton West struck him, knocking him under the right rear wheel. According to witnesses, Garry jumped up immediately after the car passed over him and ran to the side of the road where he lay down. He complained of being unable to breathe. He was immediately rushed to York County hospital, Newmarket.

According to Mrs. Robinson, she had just left a service station near the north end of Aurora. She told police that the boy suddenly jumped out in front of her car, and that she was unable to avoid hitting him. Garry told his mother, Mrs. Keith Knowles, that he had not seen the approaching car. Attending at the scene of the accident was Dr. J. L. Urquhart, Aurora. Investigation is by Chief Constable Fisher Dunham of Aurora.

TO FORM R.C.A.F. ASSOC.

A Newmarket wing of the Royal Canadian Air Force association has been started on its way to formation. The club would be made up of former members of the R.C.A.F. It is hoped that an organization meeting will be held shortly. Any ex-airmen are urged to inquire through T. A. Sadeski, phone 920 or 921 by day and 840 by night, for further information.

Hallowe'en Party Overflows Hall

Variety is the spice of life 'tis said. There certainly was variety at the recreation commission sponsored Hallowe'en party Monday evening. Every variety of costume under the sun was to be seen.

The town hall, site of the main event, was filled to overflowing. There were countless pirates, Indians, goblins, elves, witches, Robin Hoods, skeletons, Supermen, Draculas, Tarzans, scare crows, Jack in the boxes and Bo Peeps. In fact, it's safe to say some of her sheep were on hand. The costumes reflected a lot of time and effort by the designers over the past week.

The Hallowe'en program opened with the preliminary judging of costumes at the various public and St. John's schools. The parade forming up at Queen and Main and the long line of costumed figures was led to the town hall by Citizens' and Trumpet Band. On the arrival at the hall those selected in the preliminary judging came forward to the stage and the final selections were made.

Following the judging, the evening was turned over to movies. As each and every one left the hall he was gifted with an ample size bag of candies and apples. The event stretched out so long the scheduled bonfire in the Widdifield parking lot was cancelled.

All those having a hand in putting the affair over can take a bow. Legion Auxiliary who put up the goodies, recreation commission sponsors, school teachers, Newmarket fire brigade, Citizens' band, Trumpet band, Pat McLean in charge of music, Don Brown, projectionist, J. B. Walker, master of ceremonies, the board of judges, Mrs. K. Rusnell, Mrs. H. D. Moore, Mrs. J. G. Downward and last but not least, Art Evans' Lions and Joe Dales' Optimists on the shelling out department.

—Central Press Canadian

"Nobody's going to make lamb chops out of you! So go ahead and laugh!" The baby lamb's expression is answer enough to the little girl enchanted by what seems to her to be an animated toy. This photo was a winner in the children's division of the Annual Newspaper National Snapshot contest in the U.S.

MOUNT ALBERT

Teen-age night last week was a huge success. About 80 attended and the evening passed very quickly with games and dancing alternately. The group winning the most points won a prize, and a lunch of cake and ice cream brought to a close an evening when the teen-agers were very grateful to the committee in charge for the lovely time they had.

The C.G.I.T. held a Hallowe'en party on Friday evening and had as their guests the C.G.I.T. from Queensville. Many ghosts and spooks were in attendance and a fortune-teller seemed most popular. Some were pleased with their fortune, while others were not. After all their fun, the meeting closed by the members of Queensville who took the devotional service and then enjoyed lunch and a pleasant evening came to a close.

For many years Mount Albert Women's Institute has held its community Hallowe'en party and this year was as usual, a huge success. The hall was filled and many came in costume who were judged by Mr. Snyder, Mrs. Anglin and Miss Coulson. The following were prizewinners: boys, 1 - 4 yrs., comic, Billie Yeamanson; Hallowe'en, Joe Case; fancy, Ian Parks; girls, 1 - 4 yrs., comic, Dianne Merryweather; Hallowe'en, Beth Cunningham; fancy, Linda Pegg; boys, 5 - 7 yrs., comic, Gary Wilson; fancy, Gary Hammett; Hallowe'en, Jerry Case; girls, 8 - 10 yrs., comic, Ruth Rutledge; fancy, Maris Macpherson; Hallowe'en, Joan Murphy.

Boys, 8 - 10 yrs., comic, John Rennie; fancy, Greig Scott; Hallowe'en, Jackie Macpherson; girls, 5 - 7 yrs., fancy, Kay Moorehead; comic, Darlene Dike; Hallowe'en, Linda Rutledge; girls, 11 - 14 yrs., comic, Glayds Jordon; fancy, Louise Moorehead; Hallowe'en, Helen Dike; boys, 11 - 14, Forbes Graham.

Adult, Galdys Rolling, Dee Macpherson; couples, Dorothy Harrison and Mary Green.

After the prizes were finished everyone enjoyed the moving pictures put on by Mr. Theaker, then the lunch finished up a good evening.

Hallowe'en decorations were responsible for what might have been a serious fire at Mr. Alf. Parks' home on Monday evening. However the fire engines and lots of help soon had it under control with small damage.

The next tennis dance will be held in the hall on Nov. 18.

Mrs. Roy Graham has been having a well earned holiday at her old home near Camp Borden.

In a few days Mount Albert and district will be asked to purchase the poppies which make it possible for the Canadian Legion here to carry on its welfare work. This work is very important, but I think one thing that perhaps has not been sufficiently stressed is the fact that the poppy is the symbol of remembrance of the dead of two world wars. Our memories are apt to be a little short.

Those who have not had experience with the Poppy Fund may be inclined to question whether the Poppy Fund is necessary. I can assure them it is. It is true that the level of employment in Canada is high but it is equally true that there are veterans and veterans' dependants who cannot work.

We have in our Acts of Parliament considerable social legislation, but things such as the old-age pension and similar allowances are inadequate in the face of present living costs. However, the majority of worthy veterans are people with a very intense personal pride. They have given Canada service in war time, many of them on two occasions. They are the type of people who hesitate to approach organized charities. Were it not for the Canadian Legion and the comradeship which was born in war, many of these deserving cases would not be known about. The Poppy Fund enables the Canadian Legion to assist veterans, and veterans' dependants in times of emergency. Money collected in Mount Albert and district is used in Mount Albert and district.

I ask the support of the people in carrying on this work.

Yours sincerely,
Chairman Poppy Fund,
Mount Albert branch No. 382, Canadian Legion.

Keswick News

Wonder Dog to be Here

"Knee-High", the Toronto Star wonder dog in his knowledge of traffic, will be in Keswick for the young citizens' day on Saturday.

More than 40,000 members of Optimist clubs in the U.S.A., Porta Rica, Mexico, England and Canada will celebrate next week in which they publicize their creed and service work. This community's club will start off by attending church service at the United church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Campbell will deliver the special Optimist message. Centre aisle seats will be reserved for members, wives and families. will be reserved for members, wives and families.

Our big sister town of Newmarket is chartering an Optimist club on Tuesday evening and Keswick Optimists and their wives are invited to attend at the King George hotel.

Wednesday evening the Optimist club holds open house. Everybody, young and older, is invited to one of the most outstanding treats ever to be held here since the Dug Hill moniker was changed to Keswick. Dinner is at 7 o'clock. Take special notice: speaker is John Collingwood Reed of platform and radio fame. Also the entertainment will be of exceptional quality, supplied by six young people, Gold Medalists in singing at the C.N.E. There will be no increase in dinner price. Let us all show our appreciation for the effort put forth by the Optimists in bringing such talent to our new memorial hall.

Friday evening our local food specialists are out to achieve their greatest effort in an oyster supper. Oh yes, you non oysterites will have plenty of variety to chose from. After the supper everybody will dance to the music of Max Boag and his men. Sometime during the evening, the ownership of the new Dodge will be decided.

Saturday afternoon will be Young Citizens' Day. A costume and decorated bicycle parade which will specially emphasize safety on the streets and highways for bicyclists, will start from the school grounds at 2.30. Mr. George returns this week to his position in Ottawa and Mrs. George to their home in Victoria, B.C.

The Optimist clubs throughout the whole international organization have already equipped many thousand bicycles and the police are high in their praise for this effort. All North Gwillimbury schools have been supplied with rules and details of the parade and prize conditions. These are also posted in Keswick post office.

Parade judges include John Meyer, editor of The Newmarket Era and Express.

Charlie Stevens, who is in charge of the games Friday evenings for all boys of the community reports a favorable attendance of boys up to the 15 years age group but disappointed because the older boys are not responding. The Optimists are supplying the use of the building free for boys on Friday nights and all boys are welcome. Those up to 15 years of age are from 6.30 p.m. to 8 and those 15 years and over from then on. Those attending so far are quite enthusiastic.

All neighboring Legions have been asked to send delegations and all local ex-members of the armed forces of both World Wars are requested to join in the parade to the hall which forms at the United church at 2 p.m. and will be headed by a Scottish band from Toronto.

Keswick United church anniversary services of Sunday, Oct. 30, will long be remembered when worshippers filled the church and overflowed into the Sunday-school room to welcome a much loved and respected former minister, Rev. C. E. Fockler, as guest preacher. His messages were an inspiration and challenge to all who attended. Special music was provided by the choir assisted in the morning by Mr. Pirie, Toronto, as guest soloist and in the evening by the girls' double trio and Miss Marion Gibson of the Christian Baptist church in Newmarket.

Be sure to reserve the date, November 14, for the Women's Association supper and concert in Keswick United church. Miss Lillian Holborn, Sutton, is to be the soloist and Edna Jacques, Toronto, elocutionist.

BROWNHILL

October 29, Miss Gertie Sedore and Mr. Jack Leitch were married at Keswick and several guests were at the bride's home for the wedding supper. Will try and get more about this fine couple for the readers interested next week. However, there is to be a shower at Ravenshoe for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leitch.

With Hallowe'en over and things set back up, the folks are all settling back to normal and getting things in preparation for Christmas. You may already see where Santa has been hiding a few of his parcels and packages if you look in cupboards and behind doors, etc.

There was a lovely party at the school house last Friday when some of the adults took part in the dress-up feature.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sedore and Mrs. Delbert Longhurst visited Mrs. Emeline Sedore last Sunday.

They are still having Sunday-school and church at the little Free Methodist church at Brown Hill.

Mrs. Amos York called and visited the new granddaughter at Ravenshoe one day last week. Mrs. Abbs had just returned from hospital with the new addition.

Give Yourself A Christmas Present NOW! Give yourself the pleasure of having a "treasure trove" of Christmastime recipes on hand for your family's and friends' delight! . . . Simply drop a note to Pauline Harvey, P.O. Box 6400, Montreal, P.Q.—FOR YOUR FREE COPY OF PAULINE HARVEY'S SPECIAL CHRISTMAS RECIPE BOOKLET, "Christmas Cooking with Five Roses Flour"! It's "chuck-full" of festive ideas for holiday meals . . . and wonderful recipes like this:—Plum Pudding with Fruit Sauce—Mince Meat Tarts—Fruit Cake! Now's the time to write for it! . . . please be sure your address is clearly written!

Just Shopping "Around", I've noticed recently how good restaurants everywhere are featuring tasty afternoon tea specials. Here's my tip: When next you're out, drop in for a refreshing cup of afternoon tea with say—assorted finger sandwiches or toasted muffins or Danish pastry. Whether I'm alone or with company I do enjoy this friendly custom after the movies or after shopping! Most restaurants take special pains to serve good tea. They warm the pot, use furiously boiling water and use good tea. But, just as at home, make sure the tea brews a full five minutes for full enjoyable flavour.

What Desserts Are Creamy Smooth, full of rich real old-fashioned flavor—and easy as ABC to make?—Why JELL-O PUDDINGS, of course! I'll cheer any time, all the time for these wonderfully delicious puddings — all seven of them! Mellow, buttery Caramel and Butterscotch, deep-down, rich-tasting Chocolate, delicate-flavored Vanilla Jell-O Puddings . . . and those delightful Jell-O Tapioca Puddings—Vanilla, Chocolate and Orange Coconut. I can't say which is my favorite—I love them all! And to think they take but a few minutes to make! Plan to serve nourishing Jell-O Puddings to your family often. They'll love it—and so will your budget!

"I Like Venetian Blinds," a reader writes, "but I had a terrible time cleaning them, 'til a friend told me to try JOHNSON'S CREAM WAX! Now I clean them in a fraction of the time it used to take — and they stay clean so much longer!" Yes, with "Johnson's Cream Wax", Venetian blinds, furniture, woodwork, refrigerators—can be both cleaned and polished in a matter of minutes! Special cleansing ingredients in it remove dirt and stains when you apply it . . . and, because it's a genuine wax in quick-buffing form—it puts on a polish quicker! What's more, it's non-oily, so it drys completely dry and dust particles can't cling!

"The Biggest Little Thing In Baking"—that's what baking powder is often called. It's a small part of any recipe . . . but what a vastly important role it plays! That's why I never take chances when I bake—I always use "double-acting" CALUMET BAKING POWDER. For Calumet's two actions—the first in the mixing bowl, the second in the oven—are so perfectly balanced and evenly timed that I get beautiful texture, outstandingly fine results in all my baking. I find it's real economy to bake with Calumet—no risks of baking failures for me!

Getting Away From It All with your husband is a grand idea. But with a growing family, it's sometimes difficult to arrange, isn't it? Best way I know to make this dream of a "Second Honeymoon" come true is to begin saving for it now. Open a "Sunshine Account" at the BANK OF MONTREAL . . . to send the youngsters to camp . . . and to leave you and your husband "free and easy" to do what you like, go where you like! A little in your B of M "Sunshine Account" every payday during the coming months will give you the pleasantest vacation you've had for many and many a moon!

High Praise and lots of it . . . for the gal who serves this Feather Spice Cake! Delicate, fine-textured, so moist and tender because it's made with SWANS DOWN CAKE FLOUR, the cake flour, you know, that's sifted again and again until 27 times as fine as ordinary flour.

FEATHER SPICE CAKE

2 1/2 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour
2 1/2 teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon mace
1/4 teaspoon cloves
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, unbeaten
1/3 cup molasses
1 cup milk

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt and spices. Sift 3 times. Cream butter, add sugar gradually; cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating thoroughly after each. Add molasses and blend. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Bake in two greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375 deg. F.) about 25 to 30 minutes.

VICTORIA to TORONTO in 4½ DAYS!

HIGH-SPEED TRIP IN A HILLMAN COST ONLY
1¢ A MILE!

"CIRCUMSTANCES made it necessary for me to drive my Hillman to Toronto in a hurry," writes Mr. J. C. B. Keane, of 766 Monterey Ave., Victoria, B.C. "I covered the entire 2,818 mile route in only 4½ days, averaging over 55 m.p.h. for long periods through the United States. Biggest mileage covered in a single day was 696!"

"My Hillman behaved beautifully, cruising smoothly over Stillwater Pass (7000 ft.) in high gear, and handling perfectly at better than 70 m.p.h. on the highway. Despite very long sessions at the wheel without a break, I was always completely relaxed and comfortable. What's more, my Hillman steered and held the road better than any of the big cars I have owned."

"Gas consumption was at least 40 miles to the gallon. Driving costs were no more than $1.00 per 100 miles."

Tuesday afternoon, it was just a tickle, the mildest of irritations. Wednesday afternoon required frequent use of a handkerchief. Thursday morning was misery and by Thursday afternoon, we were in bed with our semi-annual cold.

These semi-annual colds have become something of an institution, striking as they do in the spring and the fall. The kids have become quite accustomed to playing the roles of doctor and nurse to the invalid and it does have the effect of quietening the house for a few blessed hours. They bring their blocks and their dolls — offerings from the heart—and if they cannot cure their patient, they do the next best thing, climb into bed with him.

We have received from Gregory Clark a story on the book about the late Andy Clarke's "Neighborly News" broadcasts. Let Greg tell you about it in his own words:

The late Andy Clarke's "Neighborly News" broadcasts over a period of eight years on the CBC network piled up over a million written words of sheer delight to a very wide audience. These million words have been raked and sifted down to 60,000 words for a book—"Andy Clarke and His Neighborly News" — which has been published by Ryerson Press in time to be a Christmas gift to someone in all the thousands of homes that were joyously invaded by Andy's voice every Sunday morning for so many years.

When Andy Clarke died, his widow, Vi Dickens-Clarke, herself a newspaper woman all her life, determined that Andy's work in recounting the humor and good-will of Canadian rural life, should be preserved in a book. With the help of her friend, Mrs. May Holland Cox, an experienced author, Mrs. Clarke spent a whole year extracting from those million words of Andy's filed manuscripts the very cream of the stories her husband had culled from the weekly newspapers of Ontario and Quebec. Last winter, she enlisted from among the host of Andy's friends in the newspaper and radio business a committee consisting of Gillis Purcell, general manager of Canadian Press, Dan McArthur of CBC, Frank Macintyre, of the Dundalk Herald and Greg Clark of the Montreal Standard, and after a meeting with Dr. Lorne Pierce of Ryerson Press, the task of assembling these into book form was begun. Thoreau Macdonald was the artist chosen to illustrate the book with drawings for each chapter head.

The result is a book so essentially Andy Clarke's that you can almost hear the tone of his voice as you read the pages. All the greatest stories Andy told are included in the book. The form into which it has been assembled is by months. Each chapter is a month of the year, from January to December, in which are grouped the choicest items that Andy broadcast in that month during the eight years of his "Neighborly News" on the air. Greg Clark has written an introduction in the form of a biography, the interesting story of Andy Clarke's happy and friend-making life.

One of the features of the book is the index which enables the old Andy Clarke fan to look up the tale of the piano-playing dog or the bear that treed the hunter, without a moment's delay. It is a unique book, uniquely constructed and certain to be an abiding sweet memory to a multitude of people. The Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association which, with the CBC, was responsible for putting Andy Clarke on the air, is co-operating with CBC and the publishers in publicizing "Andy Clarke and his Neighborly News" and steps are being taken to make it easily available to all who desire copies for Christmas. The price is $2.50.

The Editorials:

Poppy Day

Most Canadians will buy a poppy on Saturday. They know that the proceeds from sales will be used in the area in which they were made to assist unfortunate veterans or their dependents. They know that the manufacture of poppies and wreaths maintains other veterans. And they know the poppy is a symbol of the valor of Canadians who fought in two world wars and that the wearing of the poppy is the thing to do on the Saturday before November 11.

We wonder, though how many of the Canadians who will exchange the loose coins in their pocket for a poppy will give thought to those the act commemorates? Memories fade with the passage of years and the numbering influence of routine considerations. How significant is the poppy now? For families touched directly by war, the poppy will never fade; their suffering is too keen, too well remembered to be easily dismissed. The men and women who served—the poppy will have special significance for them. But for the rest of us, how will we remember?

The poppy is a symbol but it is without meaning unless it symbolizes we understand its significance. When we buy our poppies, let it be with the inner dedication that the meaning of the poppy will not be lost, and let us acknowledge the debt we owe and which we can only repay by remembering.

Artificial Ice

One cannot help but feel a sense of pride when he reads of or sees for himself the progress which is being made at the Newmarket arena. Artificial ice is promised by November 25 yet it wasn't long ago that doubt was freely expressed that there would be ice at all this winter. The accomplishment which has so proven the grumblers wrong is the work of the volunteers, men and women, and the direction of the ways and means committee.

There is, of course, a long way to go before the total cost of the installation can be paid. Those of us who for one reason or another are unable to volunteer our labor have adequate scope in which to assist by financial contributions. The project needs both the continuing volunteer labor and financial assistance to be successful.

Newmarket's method of providing artificial ice is unique. Other centres have paid the cost entirely from municipal funds or as a private venture. In one or two instances, the total cost has been raised by contributions. Newmarket, as far as we know, is the only municipality which has undertaken to finance its artificial ice by half contributions and half municipal payment. It would be an impossible task were it not for the enthusiasm and effort of individuals; the project now so close to completion, it is something in which we can all take pride.

But let us earn that pride with our assistance, no matter what form it takes. Let us all share in the work by contributing what we can, be it labor or funds. Then our pride in this accomplishment will be well earned.

Christmas Parades

The combination of a Hallowe'en parade and a bitter wind is a reminder of the proximity of Christmas and the inevitable question of whether there will be a Christmas parade. Inevitably too, the answer is delayed to the last possible moment; how advantageous it would be to all concerned if the decision were made well in advance.

The Christmas parade has had a variety of sponsors including the Era and Express, the Lions club and Chamber of Commerce. The last named is, of course, the logical organization to sponsor the parade but its lack of action suggests that it has succumbed to the disease of apathy as did its predecessors.

Lacking a sponsoring organization, it would appear that the merchants, who derive a great business benefit from the parade must undertake the task themselves. Why not? It is not difficult. The cost of Christmas parades is after all nothing less than an investment in goodwill, repaid many times over. The experience of other years should give some indication of cost. Divide the sum between Newmarket merchants; if all assume their share of the cost, it shouldn't be high.

The disadvantage of a Christmas parade as far as the merchant is concerned is that it comes at a time when he is most rushed and is unable to contribute either time or energy. The disadvantage can be done away with by planning now and hiring an organizer to carry out the project. Every merchant we have talked to favors a Christmas parade. Why not get at it now—before the rush begins?

Leeds By-Election

The results of by-elections, as we have noted before, are not dependable evidence of popular trends outside the ridings where the elections were held. There are too many local factors to be considered: the personal popularity of the candidates, the traditional tendencies of the electorate, the efficiency of the respective party machines. The tendency, so frequently obvious in by-election post-mortems, of associating the results with provincial or national developments is often misleading.

With proper allowance for these factors, however, it is possible to draw certain conclusions in the light of the election results. It can be stated, for example, that a factor contributing towards the Liberal defeat in Leeds was the kind of support given the party by the Toronto Star. There were times when the campaign seemed to be between the Toronto Star and the Progressive Conservative cabinet, and the only issue the Charitable Gifts Act. The Liberal party and the Liberal candidate were made to appear incidental to the main bout.

The Star's future depends upon the election of a Liberal government and the rescinding of the Charitable Gifts Act. The election of Mr. Miller in Leeds would have been a step in that direction. The Star, however, balked its purpose by submitting the electors to the kind of journalistic ballyhoo that it used during the federal election. The Conservative Toronto papers, in contrast, almost appeared to ignore the campaign. Without the counter-pressure of the Tory press, the Star appeared the "big stick" and the electors, Liberal of Conservative, do not feel kindly towards the wielder of a big stick, regardless of party.

The Globe and Mail, in its election story, hails the victory as the vindication of the Charitable Gifts Act. It was by no means that, but it was the repudiation of the journalism practised by the Star.

The Charitable Gifts Act is an iniquitous piece of legislation. There is no reasonable doubt of that, nor can there be reasonable doubt that it was passed with the sole purpose of destroying the Toronto Daily Star, strongest critic of the Conservative government. It will be an issue in the next provincial election.

It is to be hoped that the Toronto Star will have learned by then from its embarassing experience in Leeds that the kind of tactics used there has done neither the paper nor the party one bit of good, but has done harm by confusing a piece of bad legislation with license to practice the Star's brand of journalism.

Life on the Farm

Our thanks to the contributor who recently sent the following, clipped from the Empire Digest:

"Dr. C. E. M. Joad, one of the best known of British broadcasters, recently became a farmer, and finds that a life spent on the land is not the thing of ease, peace and plenty that the average townsman likes to think it is. He concluded a BBC talk on "Life at Home" by making four observations about a farmer's life:

"'The expense is terrifying. All my life I have been . . . writing . . . teaching . . . talking. . . I am an old hand and my word goes. In farming I am a comparable ignoramus . . . incompetent in the use of my hands and congenitally incapable of dealing with machines. . . Nobody dreams of taking my advice and my word, when uttered, emphatically does not go. To go to the farm is to forget the world . . . you live in a world of your own.

"'The thing is expensive, arduous, humiliating and terrifying; but there are moments—God knows why—of rare and unexpected happiness.'"

Hallowe'en Party

There was little damage reported in Newmarket on Tuesday morning and the kids all had a good time on Hallowe'en. How different the story is from that of a few years ago when in one wild Hallowe'en, hundreds of dollars of senseless damage was done. The recreation commission which, with the co-operation of the teaching staffs, the Newmarket Trumpet Band and the Newmarket Citizens' Band, and the quiet efforts of public organizations and individuals, is responsible for the change.

The Hallowe'en parade has now become a regular feature of Newmarket's life and in its enjoyment, we are inclined to forget those who are responsible.

The state is the servant, not the master, of the people; the state is their guarantee against infringement on their rights, their agent in international and national issues; it is not the function of the state to assume the direction of those activities which rest on individual choice.

Office Cat reports Catnips By Ginger

A recent town by-law for parking meters defines a vehicle "for the purpose of the by-law" as every device in, upon or by which any person or property is or may be transported upon a highway except such as are propelled exclusively by power.

English can be mashed around quite a bit but legal jargon is the most painful. The slang on the street is preferable to such a definition of parking as this: "The standing of a vehicle, whether occupied or not, otherwise than temporarily for the purpose of and while actually engaged in loading or unloading."

Police officer: Hey! You operator of that device not propelled exclusively by your power, you can't stand it there, whether occupied or not, other than temporarily engaged in loading or unloading.

Main St. Driver: But officer, insomuch as I find need of taking a parcel to the post office, am I not engaged in loading or unloading my vehicle? And whereas I am actually engaged in lifting the parcel from the back seat, thereby relieving this vehicle of an unspecified burden, I should venture to say that I am thereby justified. Moreover . . .

Officer: Hold and aroint! What is a legal precedent that would thereby confirm your aforesaid contention?

Driver: Why, jurisprudence, of course!

Officer: Well?

Driver: Well, look it up. There are books and books just full of it!

Consider a retiring pension for farmers at $50,000 per year, the cost to be added to farm produce. Our friends, the steel executives, have such a plan worked out. The whole cost of their pensions is to be paid by the company. Now labor wants to be used the same way—the company pay the whole cost of pensions and hospital for labor. Why not have a similar plan for farm people?

The consumer is asked to pay for both labor and executive pensions. We farmers are large consumers of steel. Why should we pay this extra cost? A farmer will give a life-time of work, sell his stock, farm and equipment and if he has $50,000 would be considered to have done fairly well. Our friends, the executives, must think this is fair, or they would not retire their members at the expense of the consumer. If we farmers suggest that the whole cost of a farm pension fund be passed on to the consumer of farm produce, what would be the reaction of labor and industry?

Canada Packers' financial report says that for each dollar of sales of livestock the farmer received 84.7 cents and for other farm produce, 90.14 cents. The sad part is that we farmers cannot tell the public how much of that money had to be spent on steel, lumber, cement, seed, etc. But one fact stands out. The farmer, when he puts his life's saving together, would not have more than our steel friends expect for one year's pension.

The thinking public expects and wants some kind of security for the future. All parties in our last election had social security in some form in their platforms. Now whether the people were too anxious and did not understand correctly, or our leaders gave out the wrong impression, we do not know.

There comes now the suggestion of industry with pens plans for workers. The gover ment would only need to ma up part. The general pub thought at election time t whatever party was elected would have some kind of cont butory old age, hospital care a crop insurance for farme Crop insurance would off-set u employment insurance for lab

Canada Packers' report sho $1,423,947 set aside for 1948 p sion fund. We read in financ reports of reserves set aside. W often wonder what these r serves are used for. Then w hear again, but not from financ reports, about hidden reserves profits. This would lead on think that the statements we holding back some informatio We do not know that these r serves are not used to keep lab when times are slack. Labor dumped over on the governme to keep in slack times.

We cannot have part of ou people with security while othe would have no security. We ca not expect something for noth ing. Labor and executive can expect people to allow this to g on without a challenge. In th steel industry labor asks a non contributory pension plan whic pays $100 per month at the ag of 65 years. Executives in th steel industry have pensions a high as $50,000 per year, both t be added to the cost of steel.

If labor and executive forc those on the people, farmers an small businessmen will have t follow suit and pass their pen sions costs on. This whole set-u is wrong. The whole way o thinking is wrong. Kettleby News

The W.A. and W.M.S. of the Kettleby United church met in the hall Tuesday, Nov. 1 with vice-president Mrs. Harry Burns in charge of the W.M.S., assisted by Mrs. F. Curtis and Mrs. Bert Woods.

This was the autumn thankoffering meeting. We also received a goodly amount of clothing for the overseas bale. Mrs. Burns began the study of our book, "Growing with the Years," which dealt with the different phases of evangelistic work in our church through preaching, visitation, pictures and Christian education.

Miss Mary Wassink favored us with a solo, "No Other Friend Like Jesus." Mrs. Anson McCluskie presided over the W.A. assisted in the worship period by Mrs. A. Jewitt and Mrs. H. H. Proctor. The bazaar took first place in our items of business. The date, Nov. 19, time, 3 to 6 p.m. We have an unusual amount of beautiful knitted goods which should be of interest to mothers of young children. Plan to come early to ensure a good choice.

Mrs. McCluskie gave a report of the semi-annual meeting at Richmond Hill which several of our members attended. Mrs. Murray Cook gave the topic. She chose for her subject the history of the Holland Marsh. She obtained some of her information from the Royal Ontario Museum which told of the descent of the glaciers carving out our beautiful hills and valleys which surround Kettleby, of its settling down and creating the Holland Marsh. She told of the draining of the Marsh, of the courage of the Dutch immigrants who came out to clear by hand these first Marsh gardens.

She described the poor little shacks they called home and then of the progres, and the Marsh as we know it today with its electric pumps which control the irrigation of its better homes, and modern methods of marketing produce. We all enjoyed this fine paper very much. At the close of the meeting, a most delicious supper was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Wm. Hodgson, Mrs. J. L. MacDonald, Mrs. Frank Billings, and Mrs. H. H. Proctor.

We would like to thank all the adults who came to the Halowe'en party on Friday and gave the children such a good time.

Sunday, Oct. 30, was another important day in our church's history as four more young lives were dedicated to the service of God in the Sacrament of Holy Baptism. They were Clayton Bruce, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry DeVries, John Wesley George, Elizabeth Ann, and Wrae Melinda, son and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brown. White 'mums placed on the altar were dedicated to the memory of all our members who have passed on to the higher life.

Our Rural Dean, who is also our vicar, Rev. F. V. Abbott, told us about the deanery project for this year which is to provide an operating table for one of our mission hospitals in India. The total cost will be $800 but over half has been given already, and he is asking all members of the congregations of the churches in the deanery to raise the rest of the amount, so on Sunday, Nov. 6, a collection plate will be placed at the back of the church for our members to put in their contributions. We hope everyone will make an effort to help this worthy cause, as the table is so badly needed. At present, they are working with very poor equipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Yearsley from Thistletown were visitors at the home on Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Ball on Sunday.

Christ church Ladies' Guild will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Jack Archibald, Pottageville, on Tuesday, Nov. 8, starting at 10.30 a.m. Any member wishing to do so can hand talent money at this meeting.

EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

by Don Graham

"I'd be happy if I could just solve my biggest problems," said a neighbour of mine the other day.

Here was a man who believed that his whole life was spoiled because he had troubles. Happiness was not for him.

How wrong he was! Life is full of difficulties, trials, disappointments and problems. Yet countless people have learned that they can find happiness in spite of these universal handicaps. Indeed, the wisest of them have also learned that to overcome hardships and create right out of wrong is in itself a source of great satisfaction.

Your work, for instance, may be far from your ideal. But don't let that fact depress you or mar all the other satisfactions that life can bring. There is no "ideal job". So make the best of whatever is set before you.

No, life is not easy. It seldom hands us happiness ready-made. But from its raw materials, we can build a lot of happiness by our own efforts.

Is there an "ideal method" of meeting people's needs for life insurance? Experience has proved that the efficient service of competing companies, together with the helpful personal attention of their agents, meets everyone's needs most satisfactorily.

Foote-Notes

BY WILLIAM FOOTE

AURORA EDITOR

Comes civic election time in Toronto and the electorate in addition to making its usual decision, will decide the question of Sunday sports in Toronto.

As would naturally be expected, there are two sides to the question, both of which are receiving stirring, substantial support from aroused citizens.

We feel that this is a question pertinent not only to Toronto, but to the queen city's outlying municipalities. It is not a question of choosing between church and sports as some wish to make it. In fact it should not particularly worry the churches at all.

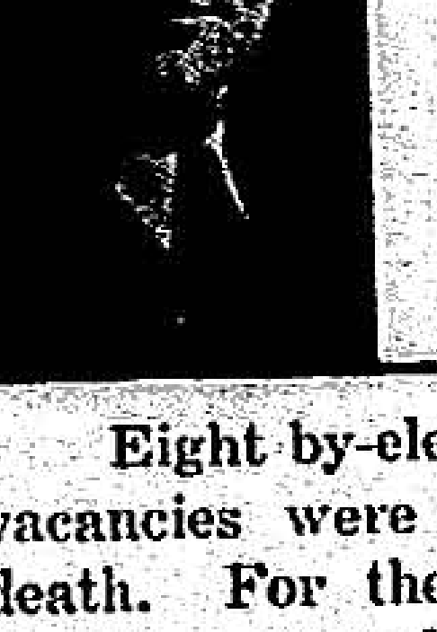
The suggestion of Sunday sports has been broached in Toronto by persons intensely interested in the welfare of the individual. Their broad, active minds have no difficulty in comprehending the folly and harm of the "blue laws". They certainly feel that the efforts of the churches and all they stand for should be aided in every way, and would like to see increased church attendance.

The evil they see in the present "dead Sunday" is the evil of idleness. Despite the cries raised against Sunday sports, there has been, for many years, Sunday golf, yachting and ski clubs for those who could afford it. Take, however, the case of the family who cannot afford these luxurious pastimes. For them Sunday is indeed a day of rest, deadly, evil rest.

Certainly, they may attend their church, but aside from sleeping, eating and drinking, there is little to do. They may visit the museum, the zoo or the art gallery, but please, not for 52 weeks a year. They may read, twiddle their thumbs or get into trouble. Often the latter is the case.

Such groups as beanery gangs are the products of idleness. So are the weekly Sunday excursions of trouble-making teenagers to rural resort spots. There is nothing in Toronto, beside attending church twice for an hour each time, for a teenager on Sundays.

Actually, the very spirit of Sunday in Toronto induces a lethargic feeling in many individuals. As a result they cannot even be bothered with attending church. If Sunday sports were permitted the individual would not only have something to do on his one really free day a week, but would still be able to attend church as well as the hockey or baseball game. n fact, a live, vibrant Sunday would undoubtedly sufficiently disturb the general state om ineritia to the general state of inertia to the vice attendance. We, among others, have been greatly disappointed in the attitude of the churches towards this question. Sunday may be a day of rest, but should not be a day of idleness.



OTTAWA LETTER

by

"Jack" Smith, M.P.
North York

Eight by-elections were held Monday, Oct. 24. Six vacancies were caused by appointments and two by death. For the first time in Canadian history, two members-elect died between polling day and the opening of the first session of parliament.

In the general election, seven of the eight vacant seats were won by the Liberal party. In last week's voting, Liberals or Independent Liberals, won six of the seats, and Independent one and the Conservatives retained Greenwood which they won in the general election. All independent Liberals and the successful Independent gave notice of their intention of supporting the government. The standing of parties now with all seats filled is as follows:

Liberals	190
Conservatives	41
C.C.F.	13
Social Credit	10
Independents	5
Independent Liberals	3
Total	262

The independent Liberals elected from Quebec were in most cases Liberals who had unsuccessfully contested the nomination and then there being no opposition from other parties, decided to run anyway. The Conservatives contested only three of the eight by-elections, so in the absence of outside opposition the Liberals decided to have a contest among themselves. In three ridings the official candidate came out only second best.

Independent candidates are always much more numerous in Quebec than in other provinces. The Independent-Liberals if they follow the fashion of others similarly elected with the passing of time and the healing of riding differences generally very soon become official members of the party.

In the party caucus here now are several Quebec members who were elected at Independents or Independent Liberals.

Trade With India

The visit to Canada of Prime Minister Nehru may have far reaching results. The Indian Prime Minister and his associates who visited Ottawa made it clear they want from Canada capital for investment, machinery and wheat.

India is on the eve of extensive development and Canada is looking forward to greater trade with that part of the world. India wants one million tons of wheat. Canada will supply some of this also locomotives and machinery. Many Indians are now in Canadian manufacturing plants learning modern production methods.

East Meets West

In an address of welcome to Prime Minister Nehru in the house last week, speaker Ross Macdonald ably expressed some fine thoughts. Quoting Kipling as follows:

> "Oh east is east, and west is west, and never the twain shall meet."

He said it is too often forgotten that Kipling also said

> "But there is neither east nor west, border nor breed, nor birth,
> When two strong men stand face to face, though they come from the ends of the earth."

He continued "This afternoon we have seen the Prime Minister of India and the Prime Minister of Canada, two strong men from the opposite ends of the earth, standing face to face on the floor of the House of Commons of Canada and cordially greeting each other without any thought that there is either west or east."

Senior Member

The senior member of the House in years of service is Hon. C. G. "Chubby" Powers, M.P. for Quebec South. He has represented that constituency continuously since 1917 and at the completion of the present parliament will have served as a member continuously for 36 years. Toronto's own Tommy Church was first elected in 1921 but was out of the House for a short period.

Farm Income

Canada's farmers are having a big year, perhaps the biggest year in history, total cash income amounting to $1,056,500,000 during the first half of 1949 according to reports compiled here.

This represents an increase of 14.7 percent over the same period of 1948 and of 45.9 percent as compared with the first half of 1947.

Every province but Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick shared in the rise. In those two, farm income fell slightly as a result of a drop in value of the potato crop.

Old Age Pensions

A total of 257,714 persons in Canada received old age pension as at December 31, 1948. The total number of persons in Canada over 70 years of age at that date was 582,411.

Horticultural Society Starts Library Shelf

A copy of The New Garden Encyclopedia was presented to the public library by the Newmarket Horticultural Society at its open meeting on October 26. Arnold Reinke, president of the Society in making the presentation said that this book was the first of what is planned to become an annual gift from the society. The encyclopedia is to remain in the library as a reference book. Gradually a well-balanced section on horticultural subjects will be established, using those already present as the nucleus.

Mrs. W. R. Stephens, chairman of the library board, when receiving the book called on all the other town organizations to note the society's example. She said that on the limited budget on which the library is operated, it is impossible to supply the wants of the community in all the technical subjects. If each organization would assist the library to select the best material in the particular field of its interest and to follow the lead of the Horticultural Society it would greatly aid the board in providing the complete library service which is its desire.

Articles which are to be handled by the Handcraft Group at the bazaar must be left with Mrs. Herman Bennitz, Millard Ave., not later than November 29.

IN MEMORIAM

Liscoumb—In loving memory of my darling daughter, Joan Eleanor Liscoumb, who passed away Nov. 7, 1944.

There the buds from earth transplanted
For our coming, watch and wait,
In the upper garden growing,
Just within the pearly gate.
Though my heart may break with sorrow
By the grief so hard to bear,
I shall meet her some bright morning
In the upper garden there.

Lovingly remembered by Mother.

Liscoumb—In loving memory of Joan Liscoumb who passed away November 7, 1944.

There the buds from earth transplanted,
For our coming watch and wait;
In the upper garden growing,
Just within the golden gate.
Though our hearts may break with sorrow
By the grief so hard to bear,
We shall meet her some bright morning,
In the upper garden there.

Lovingly remembered by sister Joyce and brother-in-law George.

Lloyd—In remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Louise Lloyd, who passed away October 29, 1944.

In Newmarket peacefully sleeping
In a lone and silent grave
Lies our mother whom we loved so dearly;
Tried so hard but could not save her.
The flowers we place upon her grave
May wither and decay
But the love for her who sleeps beneath
Will never fade away.

Lovingly remembered by children, Orval and Ethel.

McGhee—In loving memory of a dear brother, Bill McGhee, who passed away Nov. 5, 1944.

A silent thought, a secret tear,
Keeps his memory ever dear;
Time keeps away the edge of grief,
But memory turns back every leaf.

Ever remembered by sisters and brothers.

Milligan — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Elizabeth Milligan, who passed away Oct. 31, 1947.

Oft we think of you, dear mother,
And our hearts are filled with pain.
Oh, this earth would be a heaven
Could we hear your voice again.
But still we don't forget,
For in the hearts that loved you best
Your memory lingers yet.

Lovingly remembered by husband George, Minnie, Dave and family.

Smart — In loving memory of George Ellsworth Smart, who passed away October 31, 1945.

We often sit and think of him
when we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend
that grief can call its own;
Like ivy on the withered oak,
when all other things decay,
Our love for him will still keep green and never fade away.

Ever remembered by son George and daughter-in-law Joyce.

56 See Display Of Moulded Ware

An open meeting of the Newmarket Horticultural Society was held at Trinity United church Sunday-school room on Wednesday, Oct. 26, with 56 present. A. A. Reinke presided. Mr. Reinke spoke briefly on the loss to the society caused by the death on October 24 of James Gibney, a charter member of the local society.

Guest speaker was Ernest Neilsen who spoke on a new type of flower pot which he has introduced to Canada. This type of container which Mr. Neilsen is manufacturing at Roche's Point is made from a limestone, crushed and molded into various attractive designs. Colored, the container acts as jardinere as well as replacing the standard clay pot. It also has the advantage, that it does not become covered with fungus growth on the outside as do many of the old red clay flower pots.

Mr. Neilsen left early, but he left a display of his wares which were examined by all in attendance. There was great interest shown in his products and it is planned that at a later meeting Mr. Neilsen will be present again.

Mr. George Luesby presented colored movies taken of local gardens. The pictures showed many of the beautiful flowers which have won for Newmarket its reputation in the horticultural field. Delicious refreshments were served by the ladies of the society and a social hour was enjoyed by those present. Mrs. John O'Halloran convened the refreshments.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of brocaded satin and carried a white Bible with one gardenia.

The bridesmaid, Miss Betty Moddle, sister of the groom, wore a gown of fushia taffeta and carried a nosegay of small 'mums.

The two little flower-girls, nieces of the groom, Ruth Dickin and Brenda Moddle, were charming, dressed in autumn shades of green and gold taffeta and carried nosegays of tiny 'mums.

The groom was attended by Mr. R. J. McMaster, Toronto.

Mr. R. J. D. Moddle, brother of the groom, sang "I Walk Beside You" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mr. George E. Richardson, who also played the wedding music.

The ushers were Mr. Douglas Ball, brother of the bride, and Mr. James Gardiner.

After the ceremony the guests were received at Valley Field Inn, Yonge St., by Mrs. Ball, assisted by Mrs. Moddle. Later the happy couple left for points north. They will reside in Toronto.

Mrs. Starr Gives H.-S. Glimpses of Ghandi

The religious education meeting of the Home and School Association was held at Alexander Muir school on Tuesday evening, Oct. 25. Presiding was Mrs. E. A. Mitchell. The meeting opened with the singing of Abide With Me. Mrs. George Blackwell was at the piano. Mrs. M. E. R. Boudreau, who convened the meeting, led the group in prayer.

Over 55 attended the meeting which was addressed by Mrs. Francis Starr. Mrs. Starr served in Pakistan as a nurse and upon her arrival in Delhi was sent to live at Birla House, the residence of Ghandi, where she remained to within three weeks of his assassination.

Mrs. Starr was sent to India by the Quaker Relief Agency Abroad and there worked with refugees. Her talk, "Glimpses of Ghandi", described some of the situations which arose during her brief stay at Birla House where she was nursing a member of the Friends' Unit suffering with typhoid fever. Having attended the daily prayer services led by Ghandi with members of his immediate household and having accompanied him on many of his daily walks in the garden, Mrs. Starr was able to paint a vivid and interesting picture of the man, Ghandi. The silent concentration on her remarks was visual proof of audience interest. Mrs. C. A. Curtis thanked the speaker on behalf of the organization. This is the second time that Mrs. Starr has addressed the Newmarket Home and School Association.

Maid of honor was Margaret Alexander. She wore an orchid gown and carried a bouquet of pansies.

Mr. Albert Pope was best man and the ushers were Mr. Lyman Hall and Mr. Frank McCullough.

At a reception later at the home of the bride's parents, the groom's mother wore navy blue with wine accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. The bride's mother wore dusky rose with black accessories and corsage of cream roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood will reside at Whitby.

Conservation Authority To Be Organized

Monday evening the Aurora council held a special October meeting. During the meeting a letter from R. H. Richardson of the Department of Planning and Development was read in which the use of the Aurora council chambers was requested for a Holland River Conservation Authority organizational meeting on the afternoon of Nov. 28.

It was pointed out to council that the date selected by Mr. Richardson was nomination day and that in addition an afternoon meeting might be difficult to arrange. Following a motion by councillor Charlie Davies, a letter is to be sent to Mr. Richardson suggesting the evening of Nov. 30.

12 APPEAL IN WHITCHURCH 9 DISMISSED

Twelve appeals against the assessment just completed for the township of Whitchurch were handled by the Assessment Court in session on Saturday at Vandorf. This court is composed of Reeve Logan, Deputy-Reeve Ivan McLaughlin and Councillors Fred Timbers, R. Baycroft and Sid. Legge. Every appeal was of so small consideration, that when the court arose, only $350 spread over three properties, was the total of the change in the roll made by Assessor Fred Cummings.

Irving J. Hill obtained a reduction of $100 on a $4,400 assessment at lot 14, con. 8. The 100-acre farm is assessed at $3,000 and the buildings at $1,400. "It's about all I can do and it keeps me busy paying taxes to you fellows," declared Mr. Hill in speaking for a reduction. When he claimed he bought the farm in 1943 for $6,500 with stock and implements and that the farm and buildings were valued at $5,000, council dropped off $100 on land assessment.

Owner of five acres on the 2nd, James Reid convinced the court he was highly assessed and obtained a reduction of $200. He wanted to know why the former owner, a blacksmith, who lived there for many years, was only assessed $700 and just when he (Reid) stepped into ownership the assessment started to climb, he claimed, and this year it is $1,200.

Deputy-Reeve McLaughlin told the appellant that the assessor was not just increasing newcomers. "I had my assessment increased, too."

Another appellant obtained $50 off while all other appeals were dismissed and the assessment sustained. Several on Cherry St. entered appeals that were more or less trivial in size. One woman told the court that her taxes last year were less than $5 yet she appealed over a $50 increase in assessment. She was told that her contribution to the treasury was scarcely large enough to pay for assessing her property and maintaining a name on the roll to say nothing of the services residents get in the way of roads, fire protection, etc.

Dog Keeps Order On Spook Night

Aurora was a hive of activity Monday evening as Aurora youngsters, and a few oldsters too, celebrated Hallowe'en in customery and rousing fashion. Actual damage was for the most part light, pranksters behaving themselves quite well.

The evening began with a gala costume parade from the high school. With the parade over, the shouts and cries of the youngsters as they made their rounds echoed and re-echoed throughout the town. Only apparently serious damage was done to a number of fences, which were laid flat, and to the street lights, 40 of which were broken. According to the Aurora police, they kept things moving through the efforts of a kindly but ferocious-acting dog. When large crowds of older fellows would be apparently setting out to do some real damage, the dog would be loosed. The police report that these crowds broke up quickly. No one was, of course, hurt.

Overseas Parcels Final Date Nov 7

November 7 is the date set for the final overseas shipment of parcels for this year from the local depot. On this day the remainder of the Christmas boxes will be sent to Toronto for shipment to Britain.

Anyone wishing to send private parcels through this service must have them at the packing depot tomorrow. The depot will be open from 1 - 3 p.m.

Before this shipment was made there was less than $15 in the U.E.F.B. treasury. It was only through the generous contributions of local town groups and individuals that these Christmas parcels were made possible. Mrs. Seldon said that the co-operation was wonderful.

Satisfying Sandwiches

The main course in the noon meal of many people is served in a sandwich. Such sandwiches should be as satisfying as the meal served to the family at home. Good sandwiches need only simple ingredients used with imagination, rather than intricate detail and expensive constituents.

To the person who carries a lunch every day, whether to school, to the office or to the factory, variety means much. A different kind of bread, a new filling or even a new shape makes the sandwich lunch more interesting and appetizing.

Fillings may be made in quantity and stored until required. Sandwiches when dipped in egg and milk and sauteed as French toast make a suitable course for the home meal.

ABBOTT-BARRON RITES AT SCHOMBERG

On Saturday, Oct. 29, in St. Mary Magdalene's, Schomberg, Mr. Harold S. Abbott, son of Rev. and Mrs. F. V. Abbott, and Miss Jean W. Barron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barron, formerly of Schomberg, were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. V. Abbott.

The bride wore a gown of white velvet with veil and bridal bouquet. Her only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lloyd Barron, who wore a gown of prune colored velvet.

All members of both families were present with many church members who came to wish the bridal pair every happiness. After the ceremony the couple left on a motor trip for points north.

On their return next Saturday, Nov. 5, a reception will be held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barron, 241 Keele St., Toronto, in the evening when they hope to meet all their friends.

IT'S A Woman's World

BY CAROLINE E. ION

Witches, ghosts, black cats, pirates, gypsies, clowns, thin tramps and fat tramps (depending on the number of pillows that could be stuffed into Daddy's old suit) fairy tale characters and heros of the comic strips, all these and more made up Hallowe'en night in Newmarket when the small fry had the spotlight of the town's interest focused on them. It was a huge success. We still haven't decided who enjoyed themselves the most, the grown-ups or the school children. As part of an annual affair sponsored by the recreation commission the night got underway with the children meeting at their respective classes for the preliminary judging.

On hand for this important task were members of the Home and School Association, the school and class mothers. For the final judging at the town hall there were three ladies, Mrs. Henry Moore of the Catholic Women's League, Mrs. Gordon Downward of the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary and Mrs. Kenneth Rusnell of the Home and School Association.

Monday night was not just an isolated event but rather, the culmination of weeks of anticipation and preparation. Like the brew in the witch's cauldron, the plans had been simmering for days and on the night of spooks and hauntings, were ready. Some of the costumes were ingenious. There was the Indian who was worried by the current housing shortage so he brought his tepee with him. There was Robin Hood, complete with quiver and bow, Superman in his distinctive scarlet and blue suit, Bo-Peep and the Irish Colleen in their becoming frilly, crepe paper costumes, the gallant senores with waxed moustachios and a beguiling senorita in her lace curtain mantilla (should say his, for the charming lady proved to be a young lad from Andrew St.) There were so many others, some comical and some a trifle woebegone for crepe paper and boys don't mix, but they all represented time, effort and thought so the children's night of fun would be all that the young ones had visioned.

Teachers' Courage

There should be some star of merit that could be awarded to the teachers for their part in activities such as occurred on Monday. Perhaps the citation could read, "Courage beyond the call of duty in the face of 45 (or whatever number of youngsters there are in that particular class), reasons for desertion." The entire teaching staffs were present to assist in many ways so that the plans ran smoothly.

For many of them it was a repetition of the afternoon as parties had been staged in the junior classes. Remember that time you foolishly invited five other members of the jelly bean crowd in to help celebrate Junior's sixth birthday? Oh, no, don't try to forget those experiences. Do you want to develop a neurosis or a psychosis or something? Well, multiply that noise and confusion by six or seven and you can appreciate the delightful time the teacher must have had at her party.

The class rooms were a treat to visit in themselves. Jack-o-lanterns leered from the blackboards; jolly pumpkin men marched in company with scarecrowds; witches leaned nonchantly on their broomsticks waiting for the enchanted hour and there were black cats and bats and a ghostly group of spooks, goblins and skeletons.

The firemen deserve more than a word of praise for their part in the proceedings. They policed the entire parade route, keeping a watchful eye on the little ones who might have had some difficulty with their masks or cumbersome costumes. Here they gave a helping hand to a short-legged young one; there they were assisting others up the town hall steps. Once everyone had arrived they quickly cleared the aisles to all exits with the help of other willing volunteers.

As you have gathered by this time, the Hallowe'en party was a project of co-operation. There were the Lion's club members helping wherever they were needed. There were the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary who filled over 1,000 bags with candy, peanuts and an apple for the treat which every school child had looked forward to with keen anticipation. What's a Hallowe'en party without a "shell out"?

Bands and Everything

For weeks the little boys and many of the bigger ones also have been bragging that they would be marching down Main St. behind the bands. They loved every minute of the march. No soldiers ever marched so proudly as did the school children behind the Citizens' and Trumpet Bands on Monday night. Crowds lined the Main St. to watch and to show the pre-school aged tots the wonders of the night. From the sidelines came squeals, "Daddy, it isn't a real lion, is it"? And quickly the fears would be quelled. More than one youngster was heard to ask, "What am I, Mom"? But no one needed to ask, "Are you having any fun"? The answer was too vocally and visably in the affirmative.

St. Paul's W.A. Has 36th Anniversary

The Woman's Auxiliary celebrated its 36th birthday last Thursday, marking the occasion with a huge birthday cake, decorated with pink and white icing and the words "W.A. anniversary." The four corners were sent to three shut-in members, and the fourth to Mrs. E. F. Streeter, former W.A. missionary to China. Mrs. T. C. Watson, a charter member, blew out the 36 candles and cut the cake, and recalled former days. Mrs. Bacon, another charter member, and Dorcas secretary for over 35 years, also spoke. Then Mrs. Powell, the president, asked Mr. Rhodes to speak, and he ended by saying he wished the W.A. as much success in the next 36 years as we have had in the past 36. The president then called on Mrs. Arthur Evans, recording-secretary, to read her minutes of the 25th anniversary held on Oct. 27, 1938, when Newmarket branch had a birthday party with the Diocesan president, Dr. Mabel Cartwright, present.

The W.A. is holding its monthly devotional and business meeting next week, Nov. 10, when they will be shown the colored slides of this year's Study Book, "Dawn Over Japan."

Today the Parochial Guild is holding its annual bazaar and tea in the parish hall.

THE PHYSICIAN
THE NURSE
THE PHARMACIST

The physician, the nurse, the pharmacist are each concerned, though in a different way, with the use of drugs. Their inter-relationship can be summarized in this way: the physician prescribes, the pharmacist presents, the nurse administers. The physician examines the patient and diagnoses the disease. If a drug is indicated, he prescribes a suitable remedy and directs how it shall be taken and in what quantity. The pharmacist then prepares and presents the remedy in suitable form. The patient may be able to administer the drug himself but when administration requires special knowledge and techniques, the skill of a trained nurse is required.

These three people represent three important links in the human chain that brings our modern medication to wage war against disease and bring health and happiness to the patient.

Should your doctor prescribe, we invite you to confidently bring your prescription to us.

The Common Round...

By Isabel Inglis Colville

HALLOWE'EN

There is one night in the year when fairy tales come true, when elves and witches, fairies and demons roam the world and leave behind them a pleasant memory—if they be good fairies or kindly elves, and an unpleasant one if they be witches or demons who misplace steps and gates and endanger life and property.

Sometimes one wonders if nature herself does not enter into the Hallowe'en spirit. At least I can recollect one such occasion and it will always live in my memory as a time when all my childhood belief in fairies and witches found, as I thought, real confirmation.

It was Hallowe'en and at suppertime the other half of the family said, "It's as dark as Egypt—just the night for pixies to be abroad, so I'll go out and secure the gates and other moveables," while mother and I, within the house, set forth apples and candies to propitiate any wandering sprites.

As the evening wore on we were visited by sprites and ghosts and tramps, but being regaled on mortal food they departed peacefully and soon we were in bed and the house settled into as much quiet as an old house where squirrels hold revels on the roof and where mysterious squeaks and groans develop, ever does.

I suppose the visits from spirits affected my dreams, for I woke up shrieking, "Oh catch it, catch it!" "Catch what?" came from the other bed. "The lion," I yelled, "don't you hear it growling?" "Wake up, there's no lion," said the man of the house, while a voice came from mother's room crying, "What on earth's that noise?" "I don't—" I began and Archie hissed, "Hush! I'm listening". "I'm not," said I, "I'm getting dizzy and seasick." "Nonsense," said my better half, while mother called, "I don't like this, my bed is moving."

By this time my bed was swinging like a pendulum—tick—I'm frightened—tock—I'm sick. "Get up and look under my bed," said I to the darkness but there was no reply for a few moments, except the ominous, low growl that seemed to come from the depths of the earth. "It's an earthquake," volunteered a voice from the tremulous gloom. "Well", I told the world in general, "I don't think it's fair of nature to play tricks on a night like this."

We could hear the geese on a neighboring farm honking or squawking or whatever geese do when they're mad, then a dog bayed, an owl gave a sort of drunken hoot of derision—as if he had been shaken, and with a last sullen growl from whatever underground monster had been disturbed in its sleep, the world resumed its wonted placidity and we dropped into an uneasy sleep.

Many were the tales told at breakfast tables the morning after. Tales of hens that "flew the coop" and went away from there, of dogs with nervous prostration and people ditto. Never tell me that mother nature has not a sense of humor. Maybe she thought we were getting too complacent—developing a superiority complex and undertook to shake it out of us.

If so, she succeeded!

YOUNG HOPEFULS BY DOROTHY MUIR BOWMAN

Incentive Is A Good Teacher

Joyce, five years old, objects to solid foods: and seemingly, to get rid of them in a hurry, swallows them whole.

Actually, Joyce hasn't learned any way to dispose of solid foods—except to swallow them whole—because she hasn't learned to chew. It isn't much wonder she objects to solid foods, when her method of disposing of them doesn't enhance flavors or excite the gastric juices, but instead, practically gags her.

The only reason Joyce doesn't rebel when meat and vegetables are served her is because she is rewarded with a custard dessert afterwards. These desserts are full of flavor, melt in her mouth and slip down as easily as the chocolate drinks and eggnogs, which are favorites with her for liquid refreshment.

It is thought by some that children who are allowed to drink their main nourishment and who have their food chopped, strained and pulverized after they have teeth that are capable of assuming duties of mastication, are frequently slow in learning to chew. Nevertheless, if a five-year-old doesn't make use of the chewing process, it is time to teach him to do just that.

Just as in teaching anything to a child, if there is some incentive for him to learn, he will be a more apt pupil. Since Joyce is very much alive to flavorsome sweets, chewy caramels might appeal to her. Help her sink her teeth into one of these a few times and the results will delight her. If she is fond of bananas, put a large piece of one in her mouth—it should be too large to swallow whole and thus require a few gnashes at least. Similarly, a large piece of a tasty, juicy apple requires chewing and the flavor is greatly enhanced with the process. Once Joyce realizes that chewing extricates flavors and makes solid foods tasty and more palatable, she will have an incentive to chew them.

The strongest incentive to eating is hunger. However, as long as Joyce is allowed to satisfy her hunger with liquids and soft foods, there will be no hunger incentive for eating solids. Sometimes, graduating a child from liquid to solid nourishment necessitates a short period of starvation, during which time the child feels the pangs of hunger and thus Nature provides the incentive to eat—even if it requires considerable chewing.

In Joyce's instance, with supervised practice, she can learn to chew solid foods and once she learns to enjoy the pleasures derived, she will want to chew them for her own satisfaction.

News of the W.I. In North York

News for this column must be in the office Monday night. Copy must be written as briefly as possible and confined to news and reports. Other than routine reports and announcements will be printed separately.

The ladies of the Queensville branch met Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 26, at the home of Mrs. Albert Milne. With a splendid attendance on hand, the meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Stanley Eves, reading the motto for the month, "Bright and beautiful are the threads of kindness as they are woven into the pattern of life," and the members answered the roll call with their favorite verse of Scripture. The numerous issues to be taken up at the coming convention in Toronto were read, discussed and approved, and our delegate, Mrs. Fred Weddel, was appointed as our representative. The committee to look after the Queensville Women's Institute euchres was appointed and it was decided that all during the winter the first Friday in every month to be set for the regular monthly euchres.

After the business period, the program was turned over to the grandmothers, Mrs. Frank Milne entertained us with an oration on "Grandmother's Angel." Mrs. Geo. Pearson read an item on "House and Home" by Nixon Waterman, while Mrs. Chesley Doan favored us with a reading by Nellie McClung called "Good Mileage." Mrs. Albert Milne the oldest grandmother in attendance, had two splendid readings, comparing yesteryears and today, and Mrs. J. T. Smith, the youngest grandmother present, read a poem on "Grandmother's Advice." Mrs. Robert Johnson sponsored a bean guessing contest, which was won by another grandmother, Mrs. Chesley ed by all after which refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Sidney Milne, Mrs. Harry Leadbetter and Mrs. Rex Smith.

The October meeting of the Lakeside branch was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Marritt, with an attendance of about 50. The members of Elmgrove W.I. were welcome guests. Roll call, "A suggestion on spending an imaginary legacy (to our Institute) of $1,000." Foremost was that of a public park in Keswick vicinity, with bathing facilities, especially for the children. After the dispatch of business Mrs. John Munro, president of Elmgrove branch, presided. An excellent program was provided. Interesting, informative papers on historical research, mainly covering Georgina and Gwillimbury township, and also Toronto, were given by Mrs. Frank Tomlinson and Mrs. Thomas Comer. A solo by Mrs. Percy Brown was appreciated by everyone.

Mrs. George Holborn entertained with a humorous reading. An instructive demonstration on cutting many yards of bias "tape" from a yard square of material was given by Mrs. Noble Munro. In a draw, conducted by the ladies of Elmgrove, Mrs. George Campbell held the lucky number and was presented with a lovely plate. An enjoyable social half-hour followed the program.

The November meeting of the Belhaven branch will meet at the home of Mrs. Mie Sedore, Willow Beach, on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 8, at 2.30. Mrs. E. Jacobs is in charge of the program on Citizenship and Mrs. Davies, late of Bermuda, is guest speaker. The motto is "A good citizen is one who contributes more to his community than he derives". The roll-call is "What's your beef?" Hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. McNeil, Mrs. Crittenden and Mrs. Sedore. All are cordially invited.

By George Haskett

ERA AND EXPRESS SPORTS EDITOR

Subject shinny: Slowly, surely pot simmers. Cool weather smokes the hockey men into the open. Players and governors speaking up bolder and bolder. Forechecking on the side for new talent. Main topic, Metropolitan League. There's life in the old gal yet. Outlook bright. Repeat of last year—four teams — Bradford, Aurora, Sutton, Newmarket. Count could rise if the executive says the word. At least three possibly four, seeking entry. Hard-working second in command Harold Rogers has two Vets' organizations from the city ready to step in. Would play home games Nobleton (artificial ice) and Richmond Hill. Rumblings around Woodbridge that may bring a query. President John Hines has been holding a letter from Stouffville the past two months. Guess the latter still is of the same mind. According to Stouffville Tribune expect the O.H.A. to shoot them into grouping with our four Trolley loopers. Clippers are last team we would like to see come in. Nothing personal. But they do bring in players from every which way, and grab 'em off other teams, or did last year. O.H.A. may have something to say about it this year, but if the powers-that-be let things go as they did last year, could be the same old story. Lots of rules but no enforcement. So for your scribbler—go all-out for O.H.A. affiliation for the Trolley circuit. Same four teams as last year. If the O.H.A. won't listen —they didn't last year—pull out from under their wing and run our own show. Something to be said for this latter plan. With artificial ice in Aurora and Newmarket, it could run triple schedule, carry right through March for your play-offs. If it goes over—no reason it shouldn't —you'll have more than four teams seeking entry. After all when you sit down and work it out, what do teams get out of the O.H.A. playdowns—one first round game. Lose money on the return game as the Spitfires did travelling to Parry Sound. Sutton also had one first round game.

Think it over men — Metro executives convene tonight. This latter well kicked around piece of legislation will be discussed pro and con all hours into the night.

Bradford is one club that looks with disfavor on O.H.A. entry. Limits their available players. "Celery Kings" set up their club for the coming year Friday. Don. "Brains" Willson, former Newmarket "Redmen" of 1933 championship vintage, is the new coach. Several players needed to round out a strong crew. Have in mind several old Bradford boys, such as Willson, "Chuck" Nesbitt. Willson now travels for Blue Top Brewing Co. in this district. There's a possibility of a trophy for league's most valuable player coming from that direction. Alright if they fill it too. Joe Magani, Geo. Parsons, Chris. Lotto, Mike Brinkos, Mike Kuhla, three Collings Bros., "Mutt," Bruce and "Tito," will form the nucleus.

Sutton too has executive elected and rarin' to go. Have a new coach, Bill Hibbitt. Hear tell they are on the look-out for a net-minder. Bob Winch, star member of the pipe-minders union last winter is attending agriculture college at Guelph. Aurora says little — but where there's smoke there's fire—and we look for Harold Rogers and his side-kick, "Dinty" Moore, to come up with a stronger entry than last year.

Haskett's hash: Bill Geer has been named chairman of the arena commission. The right man in the right place. Bradford has a new sponsor this term—Murrell Motor sales. Have to change their moniker from Celery Kings to motor laddies. Spitfires haven't settled on a coach for this year. Thought Harvey Gibney did a good job last season. Newmarket Ladies head for Barrie tomorrow evening for Barrie and District Softball League banquet. Eat up hearty girls—just some 40 odd days shopping until Christmas—you'll need your strength. Plans for monster opening on or about December 1 being lined up for "Memorial" arena. See you there.

Duncan	8	1	.125
A. Moore	2	0	.000
Primrose	18	2	.111

Lois Manning and Edna McGrath shared the heavy slugging honors, the former's three-circuit smashes and doubles record being the best on the books, while Edna McGrath banged out the most three baggers. Mary Ellen McInnis and Phyl. McInnis shared the honors of crossing with the most runs, 20 each.

Though the team failed to go beyond the first round in the P.W.S.U. play-downs, they brought home the Barrie and District championship for which they can justly be proud.

Say, look what we have here! Denne Electric up front in the town league bowling. Capt. Bill says "We don't intend to give up top spot without a scrap." Denne's have 13, Legion 12, Hisey's 11, Office Specialty 10. Sid Simmons still retains high single and triple honors with 348 and 746 respectively. Three point winners Tuesday were Clover Kickers, Benders and Hisey's. John Hisey and Ernie Rank shared top billing Tuesday with 675 each. Hisey building up his total with 248, 258 and 169. Rank combined 207, 261 and 207 for his mark. Other fine scores were Dave Weddell 660, Reg Wilson 658, Jack Watson 657 and John Caradonna 650.

Beat this if you can. Charlie Tugwell burned up the alleys Saturday night. The mark to shoot at, men, is 1030 made up of three top notch games of 306, 351 and 373. Best I can ever recall, says proprietor Joe Smith.

Slick Chicks are front runners with 24 points in the Friday night mixed league. Eager Beavers 17, Stinkers 14 and Hep Cats 9 in that order. Iris Morton took home both high single with a 206 and high three with 473 last Friday in the ladies' section. Walt Stickwood repeated in the men's division racking up a 235 single and 605 threesome.

Stores snared five points, Vorclone 4, Sheet Metal 3 and Press Shop 2 in Friday action in the Hoffman league. Sheet Metal still managed to hold top run with 18, Stores 17, Press Shop 14, Machine Shop 11 and Vorclone 10. Don Brown left off work on the drafting board long enough to capture high triple with 628, getting away with a 192 first game, opening the throttle for a 250 middle and a finale of 186. Joe Rundle with 581, Keith Davis and Al Bryson on 566 roll finished in that order.

Myrtle Dunn spilled the pins for a nice 664 three with the Thursday night ladies. It was 187 opener, 168 middle and great big handsome 309 in the final. The latter mark is high for the season. Hazel Bennitz chipped in with 569 for runner-up and third was Norma Peel with 550.

Joyce VandenBergh's 590 headed the slate in the Office Specialty ladies' circuit Thursday. Three games of 156, 184 and 250 turned the trick. Next in line were Jean Gatti on 567, Grace Osmond 520 and Laura Whitfield 516.

Don Burch's crew registered a four-point sweep over Art Peppiatt's team Tuesday to draw up on even terms in the race at ten points each. Tommy Scott's rollers wound up with a 3-1 win over Geo. Phimister. Scotty's men now hold second slot with 9 marks, Roy Bennett's have 6 and last Geo. Phimister's 5. Francis McFarlane cracked out a 252 single to record high in this sector. Geo. Phimister belted a 630 series while Geo. Osborne hung up a 591.

Billy Blandy's fine 299 effort was high single among the Monday nighters. Edna McGrath was up near par again with 595 triple but a tough time squeezing out Dorothy Bowser. The latter finished up with 594. Other fine individual records were turned in by Hester Clark 571, Claire Pollock 564, Mary Osborne 537, Ethel Winters 525 and Muriel Gunn 523. Snooks made the big gain with a whitewashing of the Deuces. Jokers, Huskies, Rookies and Aces shared two points each.

Harry Thoms was the big gun in the Davis Leather exercises Wednesday. "Silver" bundled together 199, 227 and 291 for a big handsome 717. Jack Groves pencilled a 666. Len Burling was up with the front shooters with 615, followed by Ken Bennington 606 and Ned Tansley 601. Burling and Thoms paced their crews to a 7-point sweep over Geo. Smart's and Walt 28, Thoms 26, Smart 18 and Groves 12 run in that pace.

George McNelly Elected Badminton President

Newmarket Badminton Club is getting into the swing of things early this year. The annual general meeting and election of officers was held last week. Geo. McNelly was elected president with Fred Speer, first vice-president, and Jack Peppiatt, second vice-president. Miss Esther McGee was elected to hold the important post of secretary-treasurer, and Miss Laura Whitfield, social convenor.

Plans for the coming season were discussed and it was decided an entry will be made into the York-Simcoe Badminton League. Likely opposition in this section will be Willowdale, Richmond Hill, Aurora and Bradford.

The high school gym is available to members each Monday and Wednesday evening from 7.30 p.m. on. The club would welcome any new members.

St. Andrew's Gridders Defeat N.H.S. 11-7

Newmarket high school gridders dropped a hard fought 11-7 decision to St. Andrew's College "Seconds" at the high school field last Wednesday. Fred Speer's gridiron squad pulled into a 7-5 lead early in the second half using Stallard Waterhouse's long run back of a kick that carried him over the College goal-line for a touchdown to shape their lead. The Purple and Gold advantage faded as Barry Pouter, quarter-back of the visitors, plunged 30 yards in the fourth quarter for a major score.

Stallard Waterhouse and Jerry Hugo featured the high school running attack. Ian Brown and Barry Pouter powered the College drive.

High school: flying wing, McDonald; halves, Morton, Anderson, Hugo; quarter, Waterhouse; snap, Lister; insides, Brice, Rogers; middles, Insley, McHale; outsides, McKnight, Case; alternates, Cook, Gilbert, Hutchinson, Crone.

St. Andrews: flying wing, Richardson; halves, Selby, Tapp, Routimeer; quarter, Pouter; snap, Crawford; insides, Hector, Lusher; middles, Springer, Willis; outsides, Young, Jewell; alternates, Fletcher, Landrith, Brown, Leacock, Smith.

Originally scheduled for attention this week plans had to be switched and the league will meet Monday evening, Nov. 7, at the council chambers at 8 o'clock, fast time. Are you listening, Aurora, Bradford, Sutton and Newmarket representatives? Get in there with the mostest of the bestest.

McComb Bats .444 To Top Vets' Hitting

About this time every year, ball players take a moment to try and remember how many hits they had, and what their batting averages were. For the benefit of you late tuner-ins, here's the story of the Vets this season.

	At Bat	Hits	Av.
McComb	54	24	.444
Carter	28	12	.429
Tunney	102	42	.412
Gibney	87	35	.402
Arnold	36	12	.333
McNulty	41	13	.317
McPhail	23	7	.304
Dillman	65	19	.292
Legge	82	23	.280
Hisey	74	20	.270
Tupling	77	20	.260
Mosier	51	13	.255
Boag	8	2	.250
Bowen	4	1	.250
C. VanZant	37	8	.216
Hamon	14	3	.214
B. VanZant	45	7	.156
Eves	4	0	.000

Long striding John Hisey was the new home run king, socking for the circuit on five occasions. The long fellow and "Joint" McComb finished up even for the most triples, Harvey Gibney finally outran Joe Tunney for the most two-baggers, eight to seven. Joe Tunney skipped across home plate on 27 occasions to top the run scoring.

Financially, and in the amount of silverware collected, the past season didn't measure up to the last couple. The Vets returned to O.A.S.A. competition and carried New Toronto Legion to three games before bowing out.

JOHN HINES HOME AGAIN

We're pleased to report that John Hines, Metropolitan League president, returned to his home Monday afternoon after a major operation at St. Michael's hospital, Toronto. The Busman and hockey executive won't be up and around for some time yet but the good word is he's on the mend!

Metro Loop Teams Elect '49-'50 Officials

Bradford hockey men gathered at the village hall Friday evening to discuss plans for the coming season. The team will have a new sponsor this season, Murrell Motor Sales. Election of officers followed with Louis DeRocco being named manager. Art. Kneeshaw was asked to continue on as his assistant. Secretary-treasurer will be Bob Veale and trainer, Steve Simone. Don. Wilson attended the meeting and will take over the coaching reins. The team is anxiously awaiting the arrival of artificial ice in Newmarket and will start practising as soon as it is available.

Sutton Hockey Club named its executive at a get-together last week. Heading the slate of officers will be J. B. Walker, R. Davies is vice-president, C. F. Thompson, secretary-treasurer. A board of three directors was named. They are J. Davies, Wm. Hibbitt and Keith Dunn. Bill Hibbitt was named coach.

Mitchell's Promotion To Galt

The promotion of Red Mitchell from the bench of Aurora Hawks in junior "C" company to that of Galt Blackhawks of the junior "A" circuit came as no surprise to those close to the hockey scene. We withheld the news until it became a reality, despite the fact we knew what was going on, as there's many a slip takes place before negotiations are finalized, and a premature release may spoil things.

Mitchell, with plenty of hockey experience, and a temperament ideal for the handling of youngsters, can do a swell job, providing he gets the support of the Galt fans and management. A coach however can't be much better than the calibre of the players he has on hand, and while it may be a bit early to judge, it would appear that the Galt team lacks the strength and depth to be a serious contender for the O.H.A. junior "A" championship. Galt was in the doldrums last winter, and the present roster is about a year away from their potentialities. Alfie Moore, the deposed coach, found the going tough, as the fans demanded a winner and there wasn't too much harmony in the dressing room.

Mitchell thus takes over in a difficult situation, but Reg. Hamilton, the Chicago field director for Ontario, and those connected with the Chicago chain, are confident in the genial "Red" they have made a wise choice. Patience, and a realization of the exact situation by the team followers, will aid Mitchell greatly. He has made a fine showing in ten days at the helm, and the best wishes of district hockey will follow him.

Aurora Hawks will still have the services of Mitchell, at least so far as the two jobs will not conflict. Mitchell will handle the team in practices until the regular schedule starts and will work in liasion with an appointee to be made later. It is a bit early to comment on the feasibility of the plan or what will actually happen in the next two or three weeks. It seems essential however to obtain someone who will be thoroughly familiar with Mitchell's system, and is up-to-date in present day hockey methods. Players signed so far by Aurora include the following: Bill Wilkinson, Bill McGhee, Bill Attridge, Ron. Simmons, Grant Firth, Jack Atkinson, Ortie Thoms, and Don Gibson from the '49 club. Bruce MacMillan, Sutton Greenshirts, Paul Maguire, Stroud, Ken. Wardle, Unionville juniors, Gord. Dillon, and Len. Smith of the championship Weston team, Dave Couch, a newcomer from Whitchurch township, and from Aurora juveniles, Tommy Hulse, Grant Winters, Andy Closs, Hugh McRae, Bill Dale, Don Marchant and Lyall Boyle. Others will be signed later. The railbirds have been impressed with the smart work of 17-year-old Paul Maguire in the nets and he appears to have everything needed. Maguire along with MacMillan are both employed, and residing in Aurora and do not come under the import rule. The status of the Weston boys remains to be seen, but Wardle definitely rates as a valuable addition to the team. Keith Collings of Bradford is out with a football injury, but will rejoin the squad later.

By-the-way, it's just a decade since Aurora won the junior C championship. Shut your eyes and name the team! The stout fellas who took the silverware were: Frankie Carr, Whitey Bone, Ross Folliott, Joint McComb, Mutt Collings, Pete Donkin, Merv Broughton, the late Jim Cummings, Frank Michaniuk, "Red" Welsh, Stan Gibbons, Keith Knowles, Duke Dennis, with Charlie Rowntree as coach. The Aurora management is figuring it's time for history to repeat itself.

Ken. Brown, former Aurora athlete, now manager of Nobleton arena, announces that there'll be artificial ice available at Nobleton from next Sunday onward and he's busy as a bee taking orders for ice space and getting the last bit of work finished. You'll find Nobleton a mighty attractive place for both fans and teams. North Toronto Lions of junior "B" rating will again play their games there, and Weston Juniors, the defending "C" champions also have booked ice space. A rural hockey league takes another night, public skating will be twice a week, and the off night will doubtless be picked up fast.

Icecapades, the all-Canadian ice show that tours the smaller centres, is holding its practices at Nobleton. The Nobleton folks started long after Aurora and Newmarket had laid their plans and they deserve unstinted praise for culmination of their plans on time. That Weston junior situation may need a bit of explaining with the new Weston ice plant in operation. It seems that the Toronto Leafs have taken over Weston as a junior centre with their own management set-up. They'll rate as "B". Ab Crocker, coach of the champs, and Lloyd Miller, both of whom have carried the hockey torch in Weston the past few years under adverse conditions, were not included in the picture as well as a host of eWston kids. Ergo, Weston "C" moves to King township.

Well, there's some opposition for Aurora Hawks at last. Stouffville arena has been operating since last Saturday when public skating was held and everybody who has visited the new arena is enthused about the general layout.

Flash! Since the above was written Stouffville intermediates we understand that advertisements have appeared for senior "B" players in the Toronto papers under the signature of Bert Fyfe. Perhaps they haven't actually given up the yen for senior "B" and the golden revenue of a Stouffville vs. Markham prolonged series. Time will tell.
